DATED : APRIL 17, 2007.

P.C.

1. This application for bail is premature because the Division Bench of this Court has passed an order on 13th October 2005 and directed that if the appeal is not heard for a period of three years, the applicant will be at liberty to apply for bail. Three years period is not over. Only one year and six months is the period that has expired. The application is, therefore, rejected as premature.
